

Leah Davis Witherow

Leah Davis Witherow is the Curator of History for the Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum. She has a B.A. and M.A. in History and received her archival training at the Modern Archives institute at NARA in Washington, D.C. She has curated over three dozen history exhibits for the CSPM and is the Project Director for the Museum's award-winning interactive storytelling platform, the Story of Us. Additionally, she has taught courses in nineteenth and early twentieth century American History for twenty-one years at UCCS, specializing in the history of Colorado, Labor, the Progressive Era and Women. In 2014 she was selected as the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences Outstanding Lecturer of the Year, and was recognized as a 2018 Woman of Influence by the Colorado Springs Business Journal.